Of the individual point scorers and basket shooters on the team, Captain Coyl led and had an able teammate in Revell at the other forward position. Stanley who played center was a fast Coyl led and had an able teammate in Revell at the other forward position. Stanley, who played center, was a fast performer in this position, always in the game, and a valuable factor in the team play, which was a feature of their campaign. For a husky pair of active and hard working guards, who have given their opponents no rest, it would be hard to beat Jackson and Manager Townsend, the former also having a fine eye for the basket, with Townsend a considerable point contributor as well. Though playing in few games, Robinson demonstrated his worth whenever called upon to substitute. For some of the final the efficiency and driving spirit of the eteam was polished up by the valuable coaching given by Joseph J. Fields, and as a mascot young Kent Ellis, with his vivid auburn hair, was a winning card. Wisgles, a Boston buil, belonging to Mr. Fields, also rings in as a mascot.

The following was the record of the team, all games being played on the home floor unless otherwise indicated: Laurel Hills.

MOHA BATTERED SMITH.

New Yorker's Seconds Threw Up the Sponge in Eighth to Save Their Man.

New York, April 3.—Bob Moha of Milwaukee battered Jim Smith of New York so badly in a scheduled ten round bout at the National Sporting club here tonight that Smith's seconds three up the sponge to save their man from a knowledge in the schells mund. threw up the sponge to save their man from a knockout in the eighth round. Smith weighed 171 pounds at the ringside and Moha 166. In every round up to the eighth Moha toyed with his opponent and uppercut him heavily. In the fifth round Smith put a hard right to the head, but Moha did not seem to mind it In the sixth and seventh Moha drove Smith to the ropes. At the opening of the eighth Moha sent ahard left to the stomach, putting Smith down for the count of nine, and when down for the count of nine, and when he got up Moha showered lefts and rights to the head and face until the sponge was thrown into the ring.
